

ALONG THE WAY COFFEE HOUSE

AT THE IPSWICH MEETING HOUSE

*Saturday Evenings at 7pm, Doors Open at 6:30, Cost - $10, Refreshments Available
12 Meetinghouse Green, Ipswich, MA Info: 978-223-3597, Please visit our Facebook page!
Tickets available at the door or brownpaperticket.com (with 2 week advance)*

March 10: Celtic Night- Michael O'Leary, the Stroms, and Cindy McIntire for a pre-St. Pat's Day warm-up. A sell out last year, you might want to get tickets early.

March 24: Quentin Callewaert- Amazing guitar work and vocals, Quentin takes us through several musical genres: Folk, Pop, Classical, and more.

April 14: Two Old Friends- Country, Sea, and Celtic Music- Old Friends Emery Hutchins and Jim Prendergast. Jim is now in Portsmouth after 30 years of studio and orchestra pit work in Nashville.

May 12: 'Leven- A Woman A Capella group from Gloucester founded 27 years ago. This group of 6 singers brings their powerful, poignant and eclectic repertoire to the ATW.

June 23: Essex River Rounders- Returns with an expanded presence, having added Susan Wood on fiddle and vocals. Barry O'Brien, Mike Maginn, Ernie Pigeon and Joe Mansell complete the roster.

July 14: Open Mic Night- Back by popular demand. We will offer advance sign ups for a slot once again, so contact us if you would like to bring your music to the ATW this summer.

August 4: Songs and Shanties from the Seven Seas- Help fill the night with song. Peter and Audi Souza, Ernie and Amy Pigeon and Gary Foreman return 3 years after performing as "The Sea Dogs".

September 15: The Honkytonk Women Band- Sing along with hit songs from the 1950's and 1960's with harmonies of Sheila Schrank, Maureen Benson, and Deb Wantman accompanied by acoustic guitar.

October 13: Jeff Warner- Song, concertina, banjo, guitar and several "pocket" instruments. Jeff has performed widely in the folk tradition across the UK and American clubs, festivals and schools.

November 17: Simons and Goodwin- Friends for well over 40 years, and a singing duo for the past 12 years. Bob and Ren have been involved with the Boston folk music scene since the 1960's.

December 1: Cold Chocolate- A groovy Americana band that fuses bluegrass, folk, and rock. Three-part harmony and skillful musicianship are impressing audiences throughout New England.

